3-codex.exe.MatchReport - Gloucester beat Sale Sharks 19-10 Luke Eastmond scored Gloucester's second try as the Cherry and Whites preserved their 100 per cent record to stay in Pool One of the European Challenge Cup. After last week's opening victory over Brive, Gloucester progressed to the quarter-finals of the Challenge Cup - the club's second-tier European competition - by holding Sale Sharks to a 10-10 scoreline at the Kingsholm Stadium. Sale
- who are in Pool Eight, a tier below Gloucester - took an early lead through former Warriors back Tom Kennedy, but the Cherry and Whites scored five tries in a row after the interval to win 19-10. The visitors retained the lead they had in the second half until the final play of the game when Sale's Rob Miller came up with the famous race through the Gloucester players that will be seen around the world when the final whistle blows. "It was a great game," said

Gloucester coach Jim Mallinder. "Our pack was outstanding and we were unlucky not to get more tries. We played a little bit better than Sale, but unfortunately we didn't convert any of our efforts and that's what hurt us. "We haven't been finding the net much at the moment, but some of our boys have stepped up and maybe they will now. It's about consolidating our position in the pool. "Our form at home in the league has been superb and we've been getting better as the weeks have gone on, so the boys are very pleased with the way they are going. Hopefully that's something that they can build on in future rounds." Sale's troubles continued when they lost their second string centre in the first half when Cheetah Morgan broke his arm, and their only other centre, and former England international, Tom Varndell, sustained a knee injury.
